Dedication

We, the Class of 1951, dedicate our annual to the memory of Dolores Rae Thatcher, who departed this life on July 14, 1950. Dolores has been called away by our Heavenly Father, but the memory of her life and spirit remains with us. The memory of her unselfish devotion to her school, her willingness to work, her cheerful attitude and her love for others, permeates the very atmosphere of the playground, the gymnasium, the auditorium, the halls and the classrooms of Hebron High.

Chorus

The chorus is made up of girls from grades nine to twelve. They sang on November 12 at Miss Bryant's for the D. A. R. In the spring they participated in a concert presented to the public.

Band

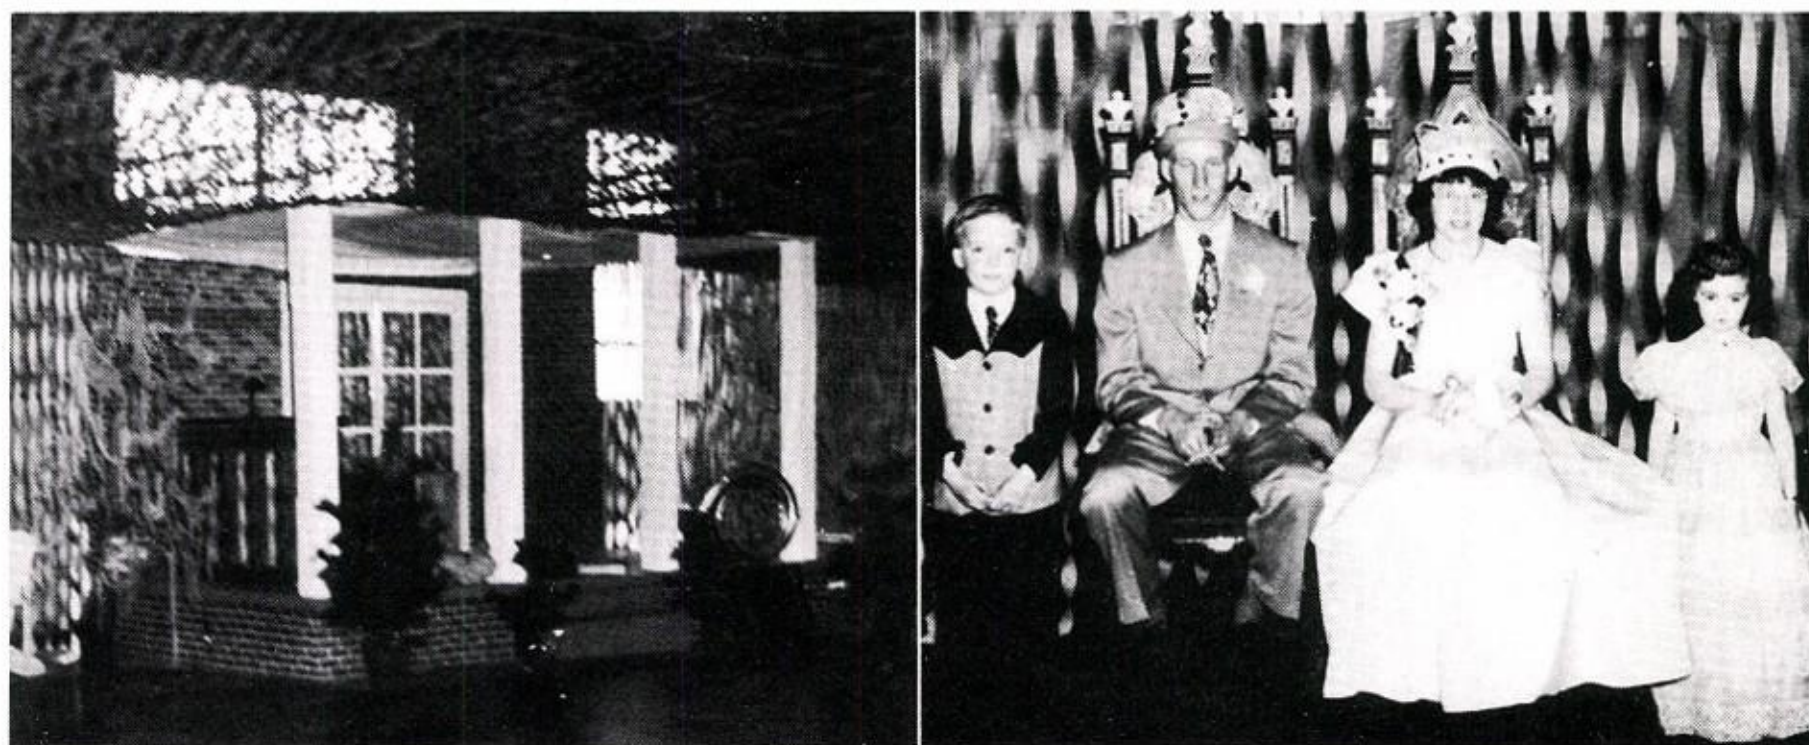

The band has been active in both concert and marching activities. In the fall it won first place in the Valparaiso University Marching Contest and also participated in a marching spectacle put on by many high school bands at Indiana University. They gave a concert in the spring.

On October 26, 1949, we presented the play "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost" a three-act farce composed of eleven characters. The play was a success as a dramatic production and as a money-making project.

Our prom and banquet was presented on the evening of May 13, 1950. The setting was a southern plantation with the music of Glen Martin's orchestra floating from the colonial porch. A color scheme of light and dark blue was used in decorating the gym. Ann Brietzke and Gene Robey reigned as king and queen for the evening. Michael Alysworth and Jeannie Martin were pages.

Athletic Board

Bob Petry, Mr. Bastin, Jim Knopf, Miss Minniear, Ronald Laszlo, Mr. Tate, Mr. Childs, Howard Hickman.

The Student Council is made up of two elected representatives from each high school class, one from each of the 7th and 8th grades, the principal and a student president elected by the student body.

Its general purpose is to promote school spirit, to give students a voice in school affairs and to establish a mutual understanding between faculty and student body.

The Athletic Board was organized the first time in the fall of 1949. The purpose of the board is to act in an advisory capacity on all problems pertaining to athletics.

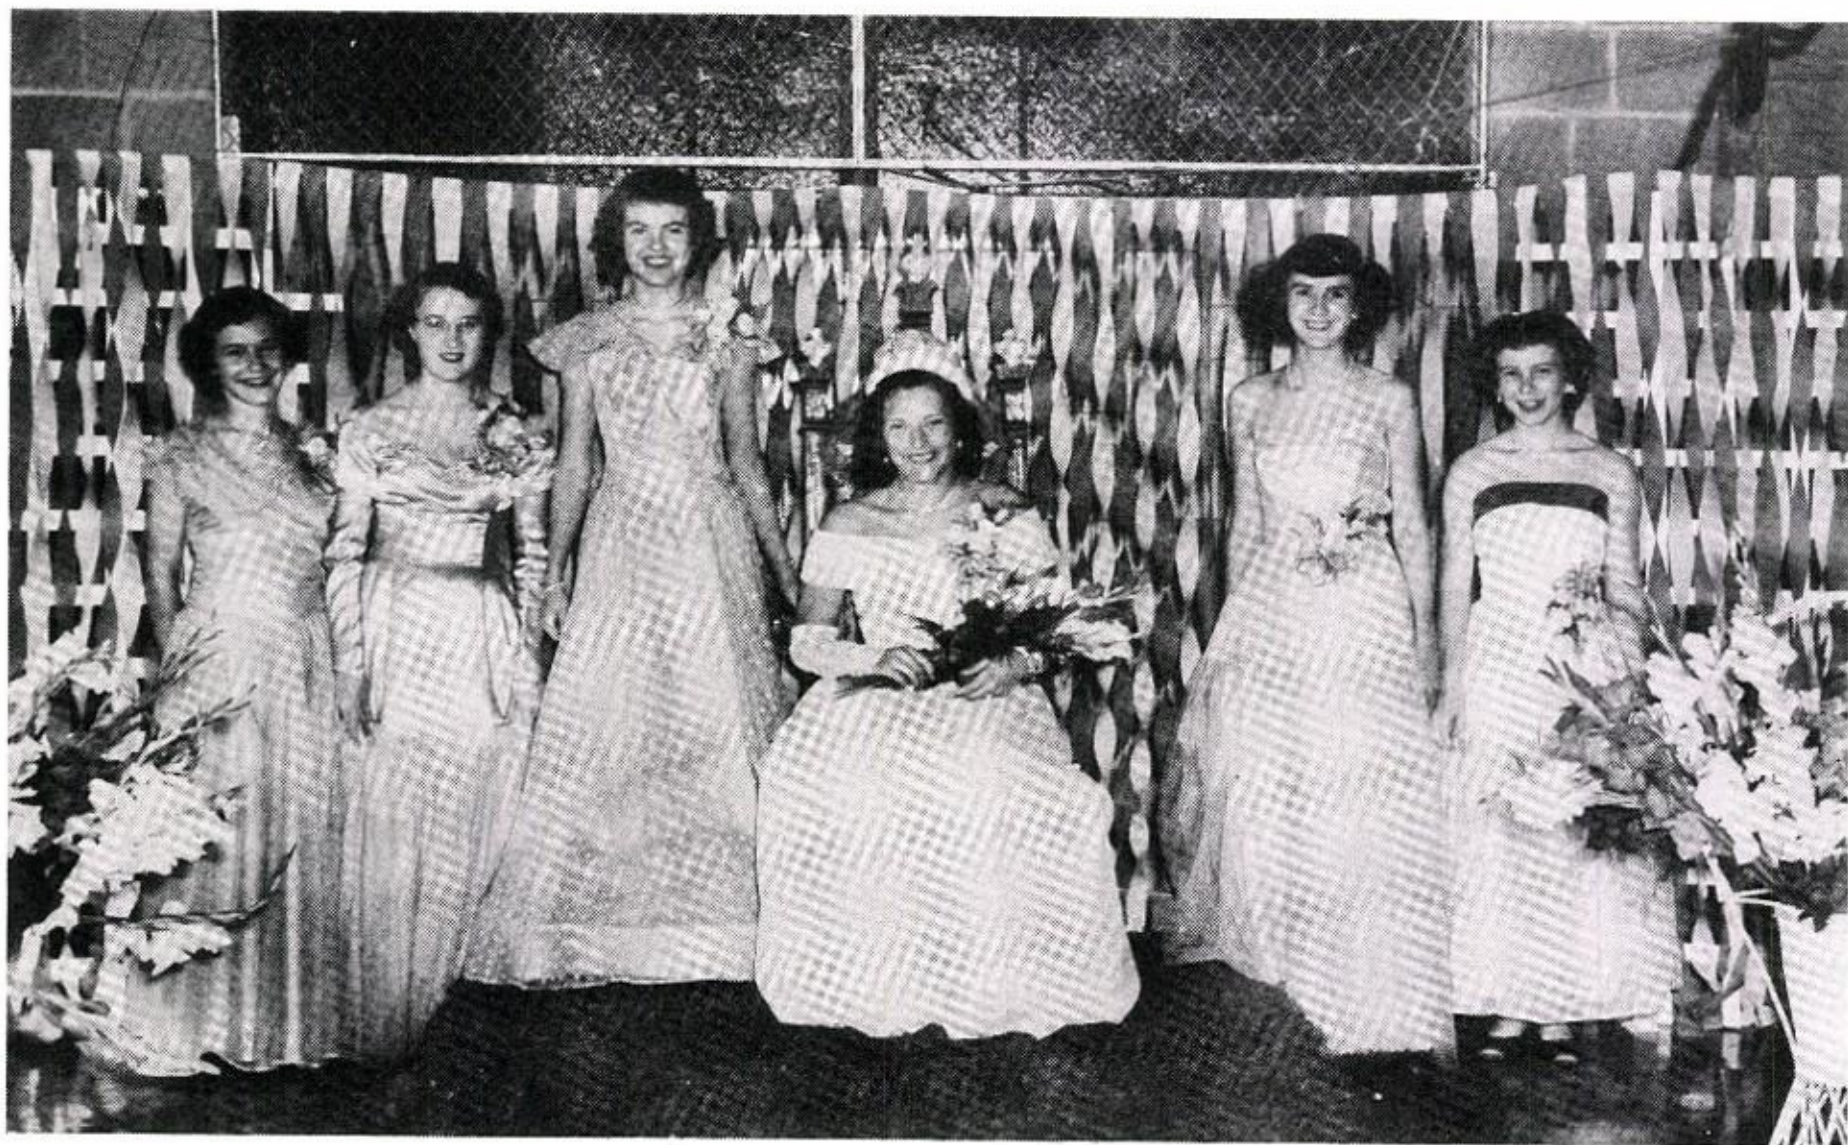

The Board consists of an elected representative from each high school class, the high school coaches, the principal and one other teacher.

Among their duties are setting the single admission and season ticket prices for basketball games and distributing the limited number of South County and Sectional Tournament tickets.

On September 22, an all-school carnival was held in the school gym to raise money for a new scoreboard. Each class in grades seven through twelve had a project, such as a basketball throw, a raffle, a penny arcade, or a burlesque show. Grades one through six sponsored a cake-walk. Various organizations sold candy, taffy, apples, or popcorn.

The crowning of the Campus Queen was one of the main events of the evening. Grades seven through twelve had each nominated a candidate and the queen was chosen by casting ballots — a penny a vote. Dean Smith, chosen by the student body as master-of-ceremonies, announced the senior candidate, Marilyn Sampson, as winner.

The community responded so well that the amount of money taken in far exceeded the expectations of the school.

Prophecy

Surrounded by my family, I celebrated my tenth graduation anniversary watching television. I turned in on the new program of "Giggles Galore," starring Wendell, "You'll laugh at me all the time," Thatcher. He had just gained the title of Mr. Television from the out-dated Milton Berle. Oh, girls! He looked wonderful in color.

The program was starred by the great acrobatic team of Bob, "Sure Foot," McColly and Don, "Never Slip," Piepho. Every second was full of thrills and chills.

A special news bulletin momentarily interrupted the program. Mr. Don, "Hot Tip," Wilson, the most famous of all newscasters warned the nation to be on the lookout for the worst villain in the history of television wreckers.

We were then entertained by a great singer, Carol, "Torrid Lips," Mc Ginley, who is best known for repopularizing a song from our school days, "The Tennessee Waltz." Her style reminded me of the immortal Betty Hutton.

The show then changed from popular to classical. Marcella, "Tippy Toe" Mason, prima donna ballerina of the famous "Ballet Russe," did an enchanting dance. Yesterday, in Dean, "Tell Everything You Know," Smith's News Column it was reported that she may give up her illustrious career to be married.

A break in the show was made for the commercial in which J. E. Garvey, D.D. (Doctor of Dietetics) showed the audience how to fry chicken with a new product "Oily Oil." It is said the meals she serves her husband and family are delicious and she always uses "Oily Oil."

Then to my amazement a special bulletin was flashed on the screen announcing that Professor Dick Blood had found a cure for somnambulism, better known as walking in your sleep. If you have this sickness and want to be cured write to Professor Dick Blood, Rockefeller Plaza, New York.

The program was resumed with a dramatic skit written by Mary DeKock Sherman, called, "The Brood and I" based on her life's experiences. It was directed by the renowned Betty Thurner. Her movies are of M. G. M. class which means mighty gruesome mysteries.

My attention was distracted for a few minutes by my family, but I immediately turned back to the television program when I heard a booming voice which could belong to none other than Tom Osby, imagine what he was doing - yes, using that voice in a ventriloquist act.

Then for a few minutes there was a preview of the next week's features. Our own Marilyn Sampson puts on a good show and she will appear in her act which is entitled "I'll Make You Disappear." Her main trick is making men disappear and then pulling them out of hats.

Another feature on next week's program will be Jim, "Test Voice," Knoph; who made off key singers popular. In addition they are going to have the famous world traveler Donna, "Vagabond Shoes," Johnson, who recently returned from Venus and will tell of their customs.

After this preview - the program continued. Being televised was a part of a church service from some place in Southern Indiana and low and behold there was Raymond, "The Rev.," Tate.

I tuned in to The Man On The Street, (Channel 245), whom should I see, but Ann, "The Dean," Wahl. There she stood as usual, holding her glasses in one hand and with the other trying to round up her twenty-five grandchildren.

My graduation anniversary would have been a perfect occasion if my television set hadn't broken just before the title wrestling match. Mary, "Tuffy," Applegate who perfected the "Kangaroo Hold," was to defend her title against Phyllis, "Bone Crusher," Henning, well known for her rib crushing hold.

As I retired for the night I was grateful that the marvel of television had allowed me to see and hear all my school chums again.

Class Will

We, the Seniors of 1951, are about to take one of the most important steps in our careers – Graduation. So, before leaving, we find numerous things in our possession that we would like to pass on to future seniors. We, therefore, will to our underclassmen the following:

I, Mary Lou Applegate, hereby will and bequeath my height to Auggie Burns.

I, Richard Bruce Blood, hereby will and bequeath my tameness to Tom Schuster.

I, Joyce Estelle Garvey, hereby will and bequeath my unmistakable calmness to Shirley Birky and Pauline Sweney; to Barbara Wilson my position in band.

I, Phyllis Marie Gericke, hereby will and bequeath my position as cheerleader to Beverly Thomas and my domestic inclinations to Nadine Coffman.

I, Phyllis Jean Henning, hereby will and bequeath my many out-of-town acquaintances to Flora Maye Guernsey.

I, Donna Faye Johnson, hereby will and bequeath my shy (?) ways to Jeannette Egger and Carol McNeil.

I, Jimmy Dale Knopf, hereby will and bequeath my wolfish ways to Hester Muzzall.

I, Marcella June Mason, hereby will and bequeath my ability to always find something to say to Margaret Fisher.

I, Carol June McGinley, hereby will and bequeath my position in the office to Bill Antrim.

I, Robert Alan McColly, hereby will and bequeath my studious ways to Joyce Massey.

I, Thomas William Osby, hereby will and bequeath my masculine voice to Marjean Frame and Janet Wahl.

I, Donald Arden Piepho, hereby will and bequeath a few inches of my height to Wally Mullins.

I, Mary Elizabeth Sherman, hereby will and bequeath my typing speed to Kent Hoover and Paul Riley.

Senior Trip October 1950

Class Poem

This is the Class of '51
And with our work we've just begun.
We'll try to carry through in life
The things we've learned and think are right.

Our Editor-in-Chief is Joyce Garvey
Whose cheerful spirit keeps her charming;
At playing the piano she's quite fine,
And we know she'll go far in any line.

For two years straight we have elected
And Don Wilson was selected;
As our president he is swell;
What goal he'll reach is hard to tell.

Phyllis Gericke is known to all
As editor of the Hawker and a swell gal;
To be a housewife, is her aim,
For a boy named Don she's staked her claim.

Next comes Wendell with his cheery smile,
We know he'll go far in just a short while;
A future farmer he plans to be,
We know he'll succeed, just wait and see.

For a sweet personality and friendly way
Mary ranks high, we'll always say.
It's cleaning and cooking she's chosen to do,
And now she keeps house for only two.

When the professor, at the end of college,
Calls on the boy with the most knowledge,
We know it's Bob who will take the stand
To represent Hebron throughout the land.

From Hebron to Lowell, Crown Point, and back home,
Donna Johnson likes to roam.
She's sure to settle down someday
In one little town along the way.

Tall, with brown hair and a quiet way
Describes Dick pretty well, I'd say.
We'd like to see him search and seek
Until he climbs life's highest peak.

Betty can sew a fine seam, they say,
And cook in the most delicious way.
She plans to go to college next fall
And someday stand in Fame's old hall.

She's bright and pretty and friendly too,
This drum majorette – that should give you a clue.
For Art she seems to care the most,
Carol's the girl of whom we boast.

Dean's main interests seem to be
In sports and driving a green Chevie.
He's interested, too, in the Junior Class;
You know it's because of one fair lass.

The "Herald" is the place you'll find
Marcella works most of the time.
Her aim in life is just to be
Happy, friendly and carefree.

If there is no lab left when we Seniors depart,
You'll know it's Don Piepho's work of art.
We laugh at his jokes and cutting up,
But please, Don, leave the school standing up.

If you think you see Jim at Fry's Garage
You're perfectly right – it's no mirage.
He'll greet you with a friendly smile
And send your car right off in style.

An airline stewardess she planned to be
But now she's changed those plans, we see.
Phyllis will make a lovely bride,
The class will remember her with pride.

If you want to joke and have some fun,
Just call on Tom for he's the one.
His interests lie in basketball
And sports of any kind at all.

Last but not least, you know who we mean,
Marilyn we once chose to be our queen.
A diamond ring is among her possessions
With a host of charm and friendly intentions.

We've come to the end of our class it seems;
We've rolled up our hopes and all of our dreams
We're ready to enter life anew
So here's "good-bye" from Mary Lou.

Mr. Kincaid came to Hebron, January 29, to fill the vacancy left by Mr. Childs, who was called into the service. Having graduated from Purdue University, he comes to us highly recommended. We notice he is wearing a Phi Beta Kappa key — which means membership in the highest scholastic collegiate honor society. Licensed in mathematics and science, he is teaching algebra, 7th and 8th grade arithmetic, advanced algebra, and chemistry.

We are happy to have Mr. Kincaid and we hope he will enjoy his work here so much that he will remain with us.

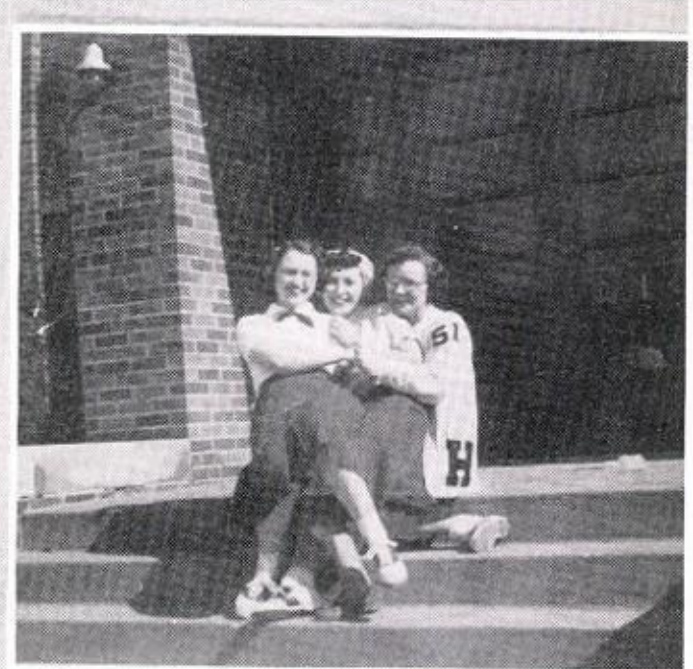

WAYNE KINCAID

Sing a song of sulfide,
A beaker full of lime —
Four and twenty test tubes
Breaking all the time.
When the cork is taken out
Fumes begin to reek —
Isn't that an awful mess
To have five times a week?
